HF Holidays Affiliation

We have, as a group, joined HF Holidays under their Activity Club membership scheme and we are now covered by their group insurance policy. One of the terms of membership is that 'on occasion, but not more than once a year, [our society] may be requested to provide the names and addresses of all our members to HF Holidays'. This means that, 'not more than once a year', you may receive a promotional mailing from HF Holidays and for that reason we are asking you to sign your consent when you join or renew your membership. HF Holidays follows strict security procedures as required by UK Data Protection legislation and undertakes not to use the personal information for any other purposes, or to share it with any other organisation.
